President's Report

Melba Gregory 651-9046

Dear Ladies,

I hope this note finds you all well. I've never been so busy as I was in 2009. In December, I had so many invites, I lost count, and I had to say sorry to 3 or 4. All in all, God is good. I hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and New Year's Eve. and day.

Starting this month, we will be having evening meeting for the next six months. This will give us a feel for those spouses who work during the day and want to be a part of the Spouses Club or those who want to have a time out to socialize and just have some fun. This is not instead of the regular coffees. It's in addition and it's for everyone. So come out, and invite, meet, greet, welcome, and play some games (such as Bunko, Spades, etc.). Tentatively it will be January 26th at 6:30 P.M. If anything changes you will be contacted via e-mail or phone.

The December Coffee was nice, fun, and enjoyed by all. Thanks to Sherrie for inviting her neighbor, Tom Messick, an accomplished pianist. He accompanied us while we sang carols and provided beautiful music during the Coffee. Thank you, Sherrie, also for providing a thank you gift for Tom. The Ft. Sam Houston Wives Club attended as well and we always look forward to their coming. The beautiful afghan that Marian crocheted (where does she find the time?) was won by a Ft Sam Wives Club member. As always, they have invited us the their Coffee/Bingo on January 19th. There will be snacks, but, if you want to eat lunch, everyone will pay for their own meal. So we will not have our regular Game Day.

Olga thanks for setting up a wonderful December Coffee.

Marian, Marian thanks for heading up the Gift Wrapping fundraiser (Where do you find the time): Thanks, too, to all who volunteered, including Tracy.

Thanks to Mary for setting up the December Luncheon at the Gunther. This month's luncheon will be at Zio's on Pat Booker. Be sure to let Mary know if you plan to attend, so she can get an accurate count.

We lost another one of our beautiful faithful members. Our prayer, hearts, thoughts and sympathy go out to Cloe's husband, Wayne and sons, Larry and Terry. Cloe passed away on December 30th. She was a member for many, many years. The funeral will be Tuesday, January 5th, 1 P.M. at the Colonial Funeral Home on Kitty Hawk, with burial at Ft. Sam Houston at 2:30 P.M.

There is still no word on Rosie's memorial. (Thank you Cindy and Marie for keeping us informed by e-mail and phone).

Keep warm and have a blessed 2010.
